

ALAN J. RECHTER, MD

Orthopaedic Surgeon

Dr. Rechter is from Ft. Lauderdale, FL, and moved to Houston in 1994. He is married and has a son and daughter. He enjoys golf, tennis, fishing and surfing.

Dr. Rechter practices general orthopaedics, encompassing all aspects of orthopaedic surgery. His focus is on fracture management, sports medicine, joint replacements and surgery of the hand and foot. In 1990, Dr. Rechter received his Bachelor's degree from the University of South Florida. There he received numerous accolades and a scholarship for maintaining the highest fraternity grade point average.

In 1994, he graduated second in his class from Creighton University School of Medicine in Omaha, NE. He was recognized by Merck Pharmaceuticals, who gave awards to the top two ranked medical school graduates from each medical school in the country. Dr. Rechter completed his training in Orthopaedic Surgery at the University of Texas in Houston after being Chief Resident for the 1998–1999 academic year.

He received training from Hermann Hospital, MD Anderson Cancer Center, Shriner's Children's Hospital, as well as other fine institutions in the Houston area. He received a prestigious AO International Fellowship in Germany, which affords focused training in the arts of trauma, hand and joint reconstructive surgery.

Dr. Rechter joined Orthopaedic Associates in 1999 and serves as Medical Director of Sports Medicine and Chief of Orthopaedic Surgery at St. Catherine's Hospital. He is a Clinical Assistant Professor of Orthopaedics at the University of Texas Medical School. He offices in Bellaire and Katy for the convenience of his patients.

---

ALAN J. RECHTER, MD
ORTHOPAEDIC ASSOCIATES, LLP
Houston | Bellaire | Katy
281-829-2001
www.HoustonBoneDoc.com
www.oadoc.com

